Hi folks. I am Alan Watt and this is Cutting Through The Matrix on November the 2nd 2009. As always, I suggest newcomers look into cuttingthroughthematrix.com web site where you can find hundreds of hours of talks I've given in the past where I try and fill up a lot of the blank holes... or the black holes really... we have in history; the type that's presented to us in school and even beyond, on the History channels and all the rest of it. To try to show you how things really work and to show you that the world is always GUIDED from generation to generation by those in power, with incredible wealth, very old families who don't want to give up power, naturally and so therefore, they make sure that the next generation will be their children's generation. You'll be in charge of it then. It's been like that for an awful, awful long time. Money rules. It doesn't matter what money is... money rules. Those with it rule the world. We simply are given a fictitious reality that's always being updated for us to live in to serve them better at the top. So go into cuttingthroughthematrix.com web site. When you're there, scroll down and you'll see all the other sites I have up... in case some of the big sites have problems again, which they will have; I know that. You can bookmark them. [Sites listed above.] alanwattsentientsentinel.eu is the European site. It has all the same audios but it has the addition of transcripts of a lot of these talks which you can download for print up and you have choices of different languages of the world in there.

Remember, you are the listeners who bring me to you. I'm not backed by a foundation. I'm not backed by staff or anything else or any advertisers. Advertisers that you hear on the show pay directly to the RBN station to pay for their air time, their staff, their equipment and their bills... which are always going up, as everybody at home also knows. It's going to go up an awful lot more too. So it's up to you to keep me going. You can do so by buying the things I have for sale on the web site or donating to me. How to do it is also on the web sites. [Options listed at top and bottom of transcript.] Some people just send cash and that bypasses the guy with the podgy fingers and the triple chins that no matter how he sinks the world, always seems to benefit by the governments that he put in place. That's the reality of the world that we live in. So it's up to you how you do it. You can also order by PayPal as well if you email me separately and let me know the order is coming in.

We really live in an agenda. I try to get that across every time I'm on, as frequently as I can. We're living through nothing but an agenda as we go through our lives. So did our parents live through an agenda. Until you study history, and I mean REAL history, not just the stuff that's churned out. I can't believe the surveys that they're doing proving that it works, that the people get their history from Hollywood and the History Channel, but that's true. That's where they get it from. From dramas... re-creations... and that's not history at all. That's just more padding over the fiction that we're given, starting at school. Power and money rules the world... in a commercialized system, a system that counts on money and those obviously who are in charge of that money are in charge of the world. It's been like that for a long time. Actually the world is their goal. We're finalizing the final act and we're living right through it. Back with more after this break.

Hi folks. I am Alan Watt and we're Cutting Through The Matrix. THE MATRIX IS THE REALITY THAT'S GIVEN TO YOU. Over the weekend I watched the Clinton Chronicles, which is interesting of course, about the type of psychopaths they put in front of you and how they give you an image for Presidency and how that sticks... because the media makes it stick. They give you little tit tats to gobble up... and trivia. And people fall for it. You understand, when you understand what Clinton was doing... and his psychopathic nature and his drug habits - as opposed to the image that they projected to the world - and the money laundering and all that stuff to do with Arkansas when he was the governor and went on afterwards too. It tells you one thing that stands out... that HE WAS NOT RUNNING THE COUNTRY. HE was not running it. A coke-head does not run the country. They PUT IN these psychopaths. They can depend on them, absolutely, 100%, to do what they're told and to fulfill the role that they've been put into. No different from Obama. The guys they put into politics at the top are meant to take the heat. The guy at the top is not the boss. It's always the guy behind them that really is the boss.

It reminds me of when you look at the history of Africa and the different invasions they had from all the different colonial regimes that were taking over... Britain, France and other countries into Africa. Germany tried but they were kicked out by a combination of them all. You find that one thing that surprised them after a while. You see, the technique was always to get to talk to the leaders of the tribes. A whole bunch of people would come up to meet these troops. One of them would come forward as a leader and start talking and communicating. In reality, it took them a few years to catch on that these people were not stupid at all. The leader was standing back amongst the crowd and a front man, a front man, had been earmarked for destruction by the British or the French or whoever it was. They were not stupid.

It's the same technique that's used for the public. They give you these characters for the Punch and Judy Show of politics. Yes, they're sworn to do what they're told. They'll get a lot of freebies. Whatever mess they get into in their personal lives, as they go through it, like Clinton, there are always TEAMS of people going in to mop up and clean up and threaten people or beat them up or even kill them... to cover up. That's the real world we live in. It's very important that the IMAGE of the press that they put over is the one that TAKES with the public. That's the whole point of it, in fact.

Professor Carroll Quigley said the same thing, it doesn't matter. They always have their own people at the top... of ALL parties. You find that you have presidents that are always members of the right clubs... the Council on Foreign Relations. You got to go in to the fact that the main advisors behind them, the GLOBAL advisors because it's a GLOBAL agenda. That's why every part of the world, for my whole life, that signed on to the United Nations works in concert with the same laws going every area at the same time. It doesn't matter when they went in to the EU, as they called it then, or outside the EU or just part of the British Commonwealth, or supposedly separate sovereign states, they were ALL going along with the same agenda at the same time.

Therefore, they put in one President in the US after another and you always vote the last one OUT you're so fed up with them. That's what happens. Left wing, right wing, left wing, right wing... you know, you get so fed up with them. It depends how long they want to keep them in, a second term or whatever, by the amount of good PR that's sold it to the public. It's all PR. It's a public relations image. You'll never know what these real people are until they're out... when someone comes forward and writes the book on it with all the inside info. It doesn't matter then, you see. It doesn't matter.

They can put in people who are even communists. They put a LEADER of the communist party for Canada in as Prime Minister here. That was Pierre Trudeau... little rich boy. People can't quite put that together, that little rich boys are into communism because it's really socialism. Where the elite, the intellectual intelligentsia and who have made lots of money and proven their worth...have the right to rule the lessers. That's what it's about.

Francis Bacon gave a bunch of writings to the King. In it, he talked about how to handle the common people. He said, the public must never know the truth, the REAL reasons and machinations of government policies... on ANYTHING. ON anything. Anything at all. Why do you think that everything from police departments, to medicine, to everything goes through public relations spokespeople? That's called PROPAGANDA. That's the proper name for public relations. It WAS called propaganda. It got a bad rap after World War I when it was found out that Bernays and other people had worked to drum up all the reasons to go to war with Germany. They were all lies. They used old bayonet stuff too. 'Oh, they're over there bayoneting the children' and stuff like that. All that worked so well. Massive propaganda campaign. Then afterwards, out came the truth. Some of them couldn't keep their mouth shut, they were so cocky and big headed, that worked on the particular team to bring in America. They actually said they advertised the war to the Americans, they advertised it. It's never stopped. In fact, it's better now than ever, the techniques.

Every day I get the latest stuff send to me, what's upsetting people from the major media. See, the major media, if there's something that that upsets you, it's MEANT to upset you. Part of it is always to raise consciousness by GETTING YOU ARGUING WITH YOUR NEIGHBORS OR YOUR FAMILY ABOUT CERTAIN TOPICS. Another part of course, is naturally publicity for the newspaper. It brings a LOT of people in to see. They see the ads and all the rest of it too, at the same time. As long as you swallow the main thing and you fall into the EMOTION ARGUMENTS, YOU'VE LOST. That was the intention of it. That was the intention, just like a Trojan that comes through your internet and crashes your computer. It embeds itself.

We've always been given our realities, including all the revolutions that we had, that people thought came from themselves. That's astonishing, isn't it? People think that THEY created the sexual revolution themselves and they created the fashions that went with it, the music that went with it, the movies that went with it and the whole culture industry behind it just had followed you along, eh? Revolution after revolution. All planned. All written about long before they did it. You can even see where they tried it out in experiments in other areas in previous years BEFORE HAND. We're given our reality constantly. It's constantly updated... and never told the truth. That's the fact.

The media is the 'middle man'. Their job is to take the reality the rulers want the media to project down to the public and to get you into debates about the fake reality that they're projecting down to you - the arguments and all the rest of it - without ever going into the real reasons behind anything. Even to do with depopulation and all the rest of it. There's a lot of articles coming out across the world right now on how Malthusian policies were correct and we should make him a champion and all that stuff. That's called a MEDIA BLITZ. That's the intention... to get you all upset and take you arguing as 'maybe they're right, maybe...', 'I don't think so,' 'they could be', and blah, blah, blah.

They're training you for the next step - THAT WE'RE ALL GOING TO BE FACED WITH - as they bring the populations down drastically. That's what all this nonsense about carbon in the atmosphere is about, and sustainability, and food restrictions coming, and all that stuff. This is to get you used to dying off basically. Not all at once, hopefully. It's too messy. These guys with the white shirts don't get out and bury you with a spade. No, they want YOU TO BURY EACH OTHER. That's what they've done in previous times. They don't like getting messy. In fact, they don't like work at all, but they're very good at planning realities for the general public. They create crisis in every area. Suddenly everything - in every field - every area is a crisis.

They've given us since 2001 one crisis after another. Sudden terrorism attack and then the world agenda is on board immediately and pulls out the SAME anti-terrorism bill. The machinery is all set up to lace with each other. Government moves on square wheels, around corners. It takes YEARS of preparation to get your own government going on something... never mind EVERY government across the planet, all on BOARD AT THE SAME TIME WITH THIS EXACT SAME AGENDA.

Then we had all the different threats. The bird flu was going to kill us. That sort of died away. It was for the birds. Then we went into different things. It was the economy. Of course, folk have forgotten already that - through the GATT Treaty - the economy moved offshore to China BY government planning. They signed it in international agreements long before to deindustrialize the West. They knew the fallout. They knew. They knew that countries - standard economics - that produce the goods, the actual goods from scratch, and pay the bigger taxes... get the biggest armies and basically rule. When you take away that from a country that is a ruler, it goes down the tubes. All you're doing is passing goods around that you import. That's called a Service Economy. Service economy means that you're a dog in a swimming pool and all you can do - you can't get out - is paddle until you sink.

Nothing is a shock. They don't make mistakes at the top. You don't hire hundreds of think-tanks - RAND Corporations and all the rest of them - and pay these incredible sums of money - your money, of course - to make mistakes. THEIR JOB IS TO PROJECT THE FUTURE ACCORDING TO THE PLAN THAT'S ALREADY LAID DOWN AND WHAT WILL THE CONSEQUENCES BE. Do you think that for a minute that the elite of the USA, those who have had power and money and wealth for centuries, could give all your manufacturing and industry abroad, your weapon making capabilities, to an enemy... unless you were already global and international? Think about it. Back with more after this break.

Hi folks. I am Alan Watt and this is Cutting Through The Matrix. Just showing people that the guys they put in front as leaders of politics are really... ANY IMAGE AT ALL CAN BE GIVEN TO THEM. You'll never know what they're like. There are whole teams of CIA that clear up behind them in the messes they make in their personal lives. You'll never know until it's all over. As long as they fulfill their time and they can stand up and read their speeches, they're well looked after. They're actors! Psychopathic actors, mind you, but they're actors nonetheless.

A few years ago, it came out that... An article, it was in Le Monde. I've read it a few times because it is so important the people remember this. I'll put it up again on the web site at the end of the show. It said,

'We're an empire and when we act, we create our own reality'

Scheherazade in the White House

How George Bush's wartime administration used a magician, Hollywood designers and Karl Rove telling 1,001 stories to sell the invasion of Iraq.

by Christian Salmon

(Alan: Listen to what they say now. Listen very carefully to this. I told you about what the media is, the middle man, that peddles the info, the reality, to the public.)

A few days before the 2004 presidential election, Ron Suskind, a columnist who had been investigating the White House and its communications for years, wrote in The New York Times about a conversation he had with a presidential adviser in 2002. (A: The advisors remember, ARE PUBLIC RELATIONS, PROPAGANDA, EXPERTS.) "The aide said that guys like me (A: The reporter.) were 'in what we call (A: The reporters call...) the reality-based community', which he defined as (A: He's talking about the reporters, right...) people 'who believe that solutions emerge from your judicious study of discernible reality'. (A: What you're given becomes your discernable reality.) I nodded and murmured something about enlightenment principles and empiricism. He cut me off. 'That's not the way the world really works anymore,' he continued. (A: It hadn't been for an awful long time.) 'We're an empire now, and when we act, we create our own reality. And while you're (A: The media.) studying that reality (A: and then the public) - judiciously, as you will - we'll act again, creating other new realities, which you can study too, and that's how things will sort out. We're history's actors.. and you, all of you, will be left to just study what we do' ". (A: Isn't that the truth. Isn't that the truth.)

They give us a reality. Everything is a fake fiction. IT'S A PROPAGANDIZED IMAGE. No different than making a star out of nobody and rocking them to the top; whether it be a novelist or some unknown teacher or professor or whatever, or a movie star or a musician or a singer. IT'S ALL TO DO WITH THE CREATING OF THE PERSONA THAT'S PROJECTED TO THE PUBLIC ON HOW FANTASTIC AND UNIQUE AND WONDERFUL THIS PERSON IS. That's how it's done. The media get all this stuff from the PR, propaganda specialists. The professional image makers who run on statistics and polls and they have survey groups and all the rest of it to test all these things out... time and time again, to see how it will go over with the public. The media peddles that to us. Then we argue about the stuff we're given. And we think everything is real. We're not supposed to know - like Bacon said to the King - what government's really up to. If we really knew what they were up to, like Bush Sr. said, the public would hunt us down the street and lynch us. It's always been that way. Always.

It's like Bill Clinton being put into that position. They knew his whole history at the top. The CIA and the parallel government runs the US. It runs every other county too that belong to the Royal Institute of International Affairs/CFR. They run them all. It was decided long, long ago that democracy was not for the people... long, long ago. And the people couldn't handle it, therefore, they'd always have to have these enlightened people, people of good breeding, intelligence and family histories to guide the world, you see. Those with the power and money and who have a lust for more, those kind of people, the right kind of people you see, according to Darwinist theories.

Right now they're training us step by step into different realities and we adapt so quickly to them, SO quickly to them that they DO become real for most people. Look at all the shops. Look at all propaganda in every ad that you see whether it's television or magazines.... Greening, greening... everyone's going green. IT'S ALL FROM THE TOP DOWN through marketing. They're bringing in a world to reduce the population, which they say - and they're quite right I think - that by 2050, after all the riots and so on and food shortages, blah, blah, blah that they will create - and they have the power to do that so easily now - that we'll simply drop off and not breed. Plus we're getting sterilized too, mind you, and filled up with various cancer viruses from vaccines. It first came out after the polio vaccine and the Salk investigations. However, to the common people, that's now how it works... No, the TV is real and this Prime Minister or that President are going to save the world from itself. Back with more after this break.

HI folks. This is Alan Watt. We're Cutting Through The Matrix. It's more important to try and get people to see behind things, than fall for the front things they're supposed to fall for. From now on - and actually it's always been this way and they're going to increase it - YOU'RE GOING TO GET CRISIS AFTER CRISIS AND LOTS OF THINGS TO UPSET YOU PEDDLED BY THE MEDIA, AS A REALITY TO YOU. Partly to get you arguing about things, coming to the foreordained conclusions that maybe they're right on whatever it is... and it's called predictive programming. You're being TRAINED for what's to come so there will be no tremendous shock. It slips in incrementally and you've got rationing and all the rest of it that you're supposed to do... as you pay carbon taxes for all the units of energy it took to produce that caramel milk chocolate bar, or whatever. That's what it's about. YOU'RE BEING TRAINED. You see, there are just TOO many of YOU and you've been living too well, TOO well for TOO long, according to those at the top who can't even tie their shoe laces together and have people to dress them in the mornings. That's the real world that we live in. Trained like animals. We've always been spoken to like animals, spoken DOWN to.

More so in socialist countries and that's what the whole thing is. Remember what they said at the Club of Rome, that's re-emerged again right on queue with its new agenda for bringing down the populations and all the rest of it, and solving the world's problems on behalf of the masters they serve. We're being trained into cutting back on everything as we go down the hill. Remember the whole purpose of it was... the Club of Rome said they favored the collectivist system. Meaning THE COMMUNIST STYLE OF RULING THE PEOPLE... where they simply dictate down to you, as a child, basically, father to child, a very simple child at that. But we can't be embarrassed enough, can we... at the bottom, or humiliated enough? We just bend over and drop our pants or whatever you do at the airport. Now you can walk through and they can see you naked. There's no end of the humiliation we will accept apparently. THEY KNOW THIS AT THE TOP TOO. They take surveys all the time on every, EVERY thing.

As long as we can basically keep enough of the pennies or the tokens or whatever we're going to use in the near future to get to the bar at the weekend or to watch the sports or playing your favorite porn channel or whatever you do - they give you to do - to obsess you, then you'll keep going until you can't do that anymore.

Then, you're a rioter. You'll start rioting. A rioter knows nothing except he can't play anymore.

There's a site called Politick. I'll put that up. It says, "Commentary of the crisis of the day."

CO2 in the Atmosphere is Decreasing - How Will the Global Warming Crowd Explain THAT?

Politick / yelnick.typepad.com

Al Gore (A: Amazing character. Again, he was in the White House covering Clinton too. Al Gore made a statement, there's no further place of ethics than the White House, he says. What a gory man he is.) starts his odyssey on global warming with the Keeling Curve - the chart (A: They use charts and graphs, just like Malthus did, for the population.) of steadily increasing CO2 levels measured off the top of Mauna Loa. Very compelling and the cornerstone of the case for anthropogenic (man-made) global warming (AGW). Early this year, however, the annual rate of increase was the lowest measured, and on a monthly basis seemed to be coming to a dead stop - which means after seasonal adjustments would show a down trend. Now it appears there is a down trend in the CO2 levels. See chart. If this continues it spells the coup de grace for the goofy AGW case. (A: But it won't, of course, because reality doesn't matter in agendas.)

The core of the AGW case is industrial CO2 spews out and stays in the atmosphere, accumulating faster than natural processes can handle, and causing ever-increasing warming. Over the past few decades we have been emitting 4 ppm of CO2 per year, and the atmospheric levels have been increasing by 2 ppm. We continue to spew, but if CO2 levels drop, it means something else is going on. (A: Then they go on to explain in detail what is going on. It also has the fact, and people admitting it at the top, that the computer models are always way ahead of the actual amount of CO2 in the atmosphere. They also tell you that most of the so-called greenhouse gases are water vapor, as they all know at the top as well. See, they play so much on our ignorance and by repetitions, don't they. After all, it's an agenda. This is an agenda... to bring us all down to third world status, except for themselves.)

Have you looked at the SuperCities they're building across the world? SuperCities. That's what the UN talked about years ago, the creation of SuperCities. These are the most advanced cities on virgin ground. Not knocking old cities down. This is brand new, across the world, in beautiful areas, with the most high-tech everything to house the elites over the next hundred-odd years or so. Some of the places have 99-year leases, in fact. That's standard in British, this strange British system that's not really British at all, but they were the first ones to get 99-year leases. It was very important, that number, in their little OCCULTIC SYSTEM.

As they're bringing down the world, the elite are already moving into SuperCities. They even built some in China for them. The oldest families in Europe have been giving up the old ancestral homes, which they never did before. These people are not hurt by economies, by the way. They've been moving. It's just a matter of taking us all down. Remember, we are batteries like they said in the Matrix movies. We're batteries and that fits in, of course, with what Karl Marx said. That everything is labor. Everything comes from labor. Everything that's made comes from labor. Everything you eat comes from labor. WE'RE BATTERIES FOR THE SYSTEM. We pay it through taxes. They'll use the system of money and taxation as they bring us down.

It's incredible the amount of taxes now that they're discussing at this meeting for Copenhagen and we're all going to pay. Countries are going to go into billions per year. BILLIONS and BILLIONS and BILLIONS. Supposedly under the theory to help the poorer countries to handle their polluting gases. THIS IS THE FARCE OF IT ALL. Utter farce. All those monies that went before to all the third world countries ended up in different pockets, as it always did. It was never intended to get to their sources because they never wanted those countries. Remember Kissinger? He says, we don't want those countries becoming emergent nations. So you keep them in poverty. That's what you do. You don't bring them up. So I'll put this site up anyway and you can go through it for yourself and measure the other, the OTHER facts and see what you think about it.

Here's something I've talked about too. Here is the secret plan for a European income tax. Now that they're rushing ahead and mind you, it was all laid out years ago, including how they'll tax the people. All they do is just brush off the dust and present it at the right time, off the old scrolls. It says here,

Secret plan for Euro income tax

Plans for the EU budget reform could cost every British family at least £155 a year.

SECRET plans to seize more than £4billion a year from Britain and make its citizens pay taxes direct to Europe emerged last night.

Wednesday October 28,2009 / By Gabriel Milland

The leaked proposals, seen by the Daily Express, state that Britain should lose the billions of pounds in rebate that was agreed by Margaret Thatcher 25 years ago. (A: For joining the Union, right.)

They would also mean Brussels being given the power to dip straight into taxpayers' pockets.

The proposals prompted fury last night.

Shadow Europe Minister Mark Francois vowed they would be resisted by a Tory government. (A: Which is nonsense.)

He said: "The idea of an EU tax is a non-starter. (A: Well, they're going ahead regardless. This is what the Copenhagen treaty is all about too, by the way, how to bring the WHOLE world into a global, massive, incredibly devastating taxation system.)

They would have to raise about £6.4billion a year - the net cost of belonging to the EU (A: That's what it costs to BELONG to the EU. This Super Power, this new soviet Kremlin, you might call it. The Soviet Kremlin Brussels, that works in secret at the top. That's the cost of your membership.) and equivalent to about £260 for every household in the UK. (A: Well, on top of that, as I say, they're having a meeting right now to do with the individual taxes they're going to pay through to the UN of course, and then the IMF and then to Rothschild's bank in Switzerland who handles the global carbon tax agenda. Multi billions and trillions of dollars... as we go down the tube. And they tell us to tighten our belts because we've made a mess of things and we've never had it so good. All those old phrases that they said years and years ago when they used to come out and just tell you what they thought of you. Now they're doing it in a different way, but it works just the same. Just the same.)

I've got to laugh. You know, I can remember when Thatcher was in. There's no left wing and right wing in this. They just bring in this bunch to do this part of the agenda and then bring out the opposite party to bring out the next part of the agenda. That's how it works. Punch and Judy, back and forth, ping pong, ping pong. And people fall for it.

This is from The Mail Online to do with

Random attack by thugs every 30 seconds as 'stranger assaults' soar in binge Britain (A: Meaning boozing Britain.)

By James Slack / 2nd November 2009

(A: Maggie Thatcher, when she was in, did away with some of the opening hours of the pubs so they were open longer during the day and she said at the time, it was far better to have the unemployed teenagers - that's when they were heavily deindustrializing Britain and sending the factories offshore. She said, IT WAS FAR BETTER TO HAVE THEM IN THE PUBS DRINKING AWAY THEIR UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE THAN MARCHING IN THE STREETS AND DEMANDING ACTION. Nothing is by accident. Nothing is by accident at all. They use this trick too, of drugging the population. That's what the soviets did. You could always get cheap vodka in the Soviet Union. No matter what was happening in the food areas, you could always get cheap vodka. So here, this article, they want to you to forget all about the previous governments that have been in. Once again, they take it back to the present one, this present Labour, Fabian Society.)

Someone is attacked by a complete stranger every 30 seconds in Binge Britain, figures revealed last night.

When Labour came to power, only a third of violent crimes were carried out by an attacker the victim did not know.

That has now jumped to half as random violence - fuelled by alcohol and round the clock opening - has become commonplace. (A: The pubs never shut now.)

There were 1,057,000 violent attacks by strangers last year - the equivalent of 2,895 a day or 120 every hour. (A: Then they go into the usual party stuff that you're supposed to believe in.)

Opposition MPs said it was the latest proof the Government's relaxation of licensing laws had failed.

Some 21 per cent of the assaults took place in pubs and a further 34 per cent in the street as town centres became increasingly scarred by alcohol-fuelled violence.

Many of the attacks were carried out by violent women 'ladettes'.

Last month, the Daily Mail revealed that the Government's own figures show the number of women being convicted for murders, vicious assaults and other attacks has rocketed by 81 per cent since 1998.

They are now being convicted at a rate of more than 200 every week.

You'd have to have been in Britain to watch how they altered society and how they did all their ATTACKS ON THE FEMALE PSYCHE a long time ago and just kept stepping it up, notch by notch. You would have to live there to see how the best mind, technical operators, worked through their plays - the BBC, their shows, their dramas as they call them - would work into reality through the people who watch the stuff. The best predictive programming of any other country in the world... mainly because it had a closed society in a sense, and no competition basically, for an awful, awful long time. Experts... just drumming the stuff out, all politically correct stuff; THE NEXT UPGRADE TO THE NEXT POLITICAL CORRECTNESS. They cause the problems and then turn around and point to the people themselves.

The culture BECOMES what it's designed to become. They don't make mistakes at the top. IF they needed the United States of America or Britain to be a beacon to the world, as they say, as they conned them in previous wars, they would give you a completely different culture and manners. They'd make the people feel good about themselves and be polite to each other. The basic necessities. However, they've given you the most degraded culture, steadily plummeting, again, incrementally, now speeding up until it's not safe to walk the streets. They open up the pubs and keep them open all the time not just in a world but in a CULTURE that's utterly depressed. Then they stand back and say, 'My, look at the lower classes; they just can't be trusted.' Cops of course, love this. So do lawyers because IT'S THE BIGGEST BUSINESS ON THE PLANET NEXT TO BANKING; THAT'S THE LAW BUSINESS. Crime does pay for those who rule it. I'll put this article up for you to read as well but you've got to understand what you read. Don't fall into the emotive parts of it or you'll miss what's happening.

The whole world is to go into this whole technique of cutting back, cutting back. You're going to pay 3, 4, 5, 6 times, 10 times as much for your electricity. 10 times as much... as they cut back. That means 10 times the profit for the companies. They love this stuff. Here is how they manipulate the market. It's from The Times.

Wholesale price of electricity surges amid fear of supply shortfall

Robin Pagnamenta, Energy and Environment Editor / From The Times October 2, 2008

(A: So the big boys who own the whole supply now, a privatized company, put out the word there's to be a supply shortfall. Well that means it's great for investors. That means the price is going to go up. This is how they create it. This is like an ad, this. Almost like an ad. A P.R. ad. Well done too.)

Wholesale electricity prices surged higher yesterday amid mounting fears that the UK could face a supply shortfall next month. (A: Now who would lead that out?)

The forward price of electricity for November hit highs of £133 per megawatt hour, up more than £10 since Friday, when the same contract was trading at about £122.75.

The price of power has risen sharply since National Grid published figures last week predicting an unusually thin margin between electricity supply and demand. (A: So they put out a scare thing and the investors jump; 'I want to buy those, I want, I want some shares, I want some shares.' That's how they create it. Rubbish. It's called greed and manipulation of people in their mind through fear. Back with more after this break.)

Hi folks. I am Alan Watt and we're Cutting Through The Matrix. Governments across the world have been paying their farmers not to grow crops and to rear animals for years. I'm going to finish tonight on a little satire which actually happened. A guy sent this off to Mr. Miliband, a Member of Parliament, Secretary of State for Britain, Department of Food, Environment and Rural Affairs, DEFRA, about this very thing. It says,

My friend who is in farming at the moment recently received a check for £3,000 from the Rural Payments Agency for NOT rearing pigs. I would now like to join the not rearing pigs business.

In your opinion, what is the best kind of farm not to rear pigs on? And which is the best breed of pigs not to rear? I want to be sure I approach this endeavor in keeping with all government policies as dictated by the EU under the common agricultural policy. I would prefer not to rear bacon pigs but if this is not the type you want not rearing, I will just as gladly not rear porkers. Are there any advantages in not rearing rare breeds such as saddlebacks or Gloucester old spots? Or are there too many people already not rearing these? As I see it, the hardest part of this program will be keeping an accurate record of how many pigs I haven't reared. Are there any government or local authority courses on this?

My friend is very satisfied with this business. He's been rearing pigs for 40 years or so and the best he's ever made in them was £1,422 in 1968, that is until this year when he received a check for not rearing any. If I get £3,000 for not rearing 50 pigs, will I get £6,000 for not rearing 100? I plan to operate on a small scale at first, holding myself down to about 4,000 pigs not raised, which will mean about £240,000 for the first year. As I become more expert in not rearing pigs, I plan to be more ambitious, perhaps increasing to say 40,000 pigs not reared in my second year, for which I should expect about £2.4 million from your department. Incidentally, I wonder if I would be eligible to receive tradable carbon credits for all those pigs not producing harmful and polluting methane gases.

Another point, these pigs that I plan not to rear, will not eat 2,000 tons of cereals. I understand you also pay farmers for not growing crops. Will I qualify for payments for not growing cereals to not feed the pigs I don't rear? I'm also considering the not milking cows business, so please send any information you have on that too. Please could you also include the current DEFRA advice on set aside fields? Can this be done on an e-commerce basis with virtual fields, of which I seem to have several thousand hectares. In view of above, you will realize that I will be totally unemployed and will therefore qualify for unemployment benefits. I shall of course be voting for your party at the next general election.

Yours faithfully,

That's good satire. Good satire on the farce because governments, as they go into a supposed coming food shortage, HAVE BEEN PUTTING FARMERS OUT OF BUSINESS AND PAYING THE REST NOT TO GROW STUFF... for years and years and years, but the media somehow neglects to see that side of things. Don't they? ...when they try and scare the bejesus out of you. The food crisis will come because it's planned that way. They'll first start with the different countries. Africa is their favorite one they pick on. It's all to get you conditioned to what's coming down eventually to YOU.

Governments, when they said their agencies are now authorities, like the medical authorities, WILL be coming into your homes to weigh you. Not just check your fridge like they do in Britain already, but to weigh you as well and punish you by fines... as you're already paying fines for everything else too... in this crazy, manufactured, fake reality they've given to us. And they'll give us many more to come.

From Hamish and myself in Ontario, Canada, it's good night and may your God or your Gods GO with you.
